

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation is now accepting nominations for its Graduate Scholarship Program, one of the largest and most competitive scholarship programs in the country. Highly qualified Ramapo College alumni who have graduated since May 2002 may compete for these generous scholarships, which can total as much as $50,000 per year for up to six years. The scholarships will be granted to students applying to graduate school for the first time beginning fall 2007. Both American and foreign graduate programs are included.

The application deadline this year is February 21, 2007. Completed applications must be submitted to the campus representative, Susan Kurzmann, by that date. She can be reached at skurzman@ramapo.edu or 201-684-7199.

Please see the Jack Kent Cooke Foundation's website, www.jackkentcookefoundation.org, for further information and to check the eligibility requirements.
