High School to host college night

The Linden High School Guidance Department will sponsor its annual College Night Program on Thursday, Oct. 22 from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

Open to the public and free of charge, the program will feature a national representation of approximately 50 admissions counselors from colleges, universities, business schools, trade and technical institutes, the military and other post-secondary institutions.

Among this year's participants are Rutgers University, Kean University, Union County College, Seton Hall University, Monmouth University, Montclair University, Ramapo College, William Paterson University and West Point – U.S. Military Academy.
