GUITARIST DAVID BURGESS TO PERFORM AT RAMAPO COLLEGE

(Mahwah) – Guitarist David Burgess will perform on Sunday, November 7 at 3 p.m. in the York Room on the campus of Ramapo College of New Jersey. The performance is part of the College’s York Room Salon Series.

He will perform guitar music of Brazil, including bossa novas by Antonio Carlos Jobim and Luis Bonfa, along with tangos by Ernesto Nazareth and music by Pixinquinha. Praised by musicians and critics worldwide, international competition winner Burgess is recognized as one of today’s outstanding guitarists. His international appearances as a soloist and chamber musician have taken him to concert halls throughout North and South America, Europe and the Far East.

Burgess studied guitar at the Estudio de Arte Guitarristico in Mexico City with the renowned Argentinean guitarist, Manuel Lopez Ramos. Burgess received a bachelor of arts degree in music from the University of Washington, and later earned a diploma di merito while on full scholarship at the Accademia Musicale Chigiana in Siena, Italy where he studied with Oscar Ghiglia. He also studied with the Spanish maestro, Andres Segovia.

Tickets for David Burgess are $10 and include refreshments. The York Room is located in the Mansion of the Ramapo College of New Jersey. For more information call 201.684.7844.

This program is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.
