CELLIST STEPHEN FRAMIL TO PERFORM AT RAMAPO COLLEGE

(Mahwah) – Cellist Stephen Framil will perform on Sunday, December 5 at 3 p.m. in the York Room on the campus of Ramapo College of New Jersey. The performance is part of the College's York Room Salon Series.

Framil, an internationally renowned cellist, has soloed with, among others, the Franz Liszt Chamber Orchestra in Hungary, the Manila Symphony Orchestra (Philippines) and the National Philharmonic of Moldova, and is distinguished as the first American cellist to perform in Hanoi. He recently recorded the two Hayden Cello Concertos with the Czech National Symphony Orchestra for Centaur Records, as well as the complete J.S. Bach Suites for Solo Cello for Radio 4 Hong Kong.

The cellist is the cofounder and director of chamber music for the Napa Valley Festival of Music, and served as a professor of music at Andrews University. He earned his doctoral degree in music from Indiana University. He has held artist and faculty positions at the Rockland Summer Institute in New York and the Hong Kong Youth Music Festival.

Tickets for the performance by Stephen Framil are $10 and include refreshments. The York Room is located in the Mansion of the Ramapo College of New Jersey. For more information call 201.684.7844.

This program is made possible in part by funds from the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts.
