Notices:

Vendors take full responsibility for selling bona fide green products and for the safety of these products. No unsafe or unhealthy products are to be sold.

Note: We will do our best to provide vending sites of equal quality. Sites will be assigned on a first come basis.

Note: All vendors are responsible for paying any taxes due.

Note: Banners and potentially flammable cloth displays can be deployed only if used in a sprinkler-equipped area, which we cannot promise at this time, or if you can prove they are fireproofed. Please be flexible in this regard, avoid side and top skirts and bonnets and focus on direct display of products. Write or call if you have any questions.

The Institute for Environmental Studies retains the right to screen the appropriateness of exhibits.

Unless discussed and approved beforehand, all vendor tables will be set up Friday between 2 and 4:30 p.m. and be open during the full times indicated here. All displays will be broken down and materials removed by 6 p.m. on Saturday, December 1. All tables and chairs provided by us will be returned. The vendor takes responsibility for any damages caused by their exhibit.
