

1-American Studies

Angelyn Conklin. Angelyn has done exceptional work in her courses, showing a remarkable ability at the kind of interdisciplinary analysis that is the hallmark of her major. Also remarkable is her ability to excel in courses from a variety of different disciplines, from history and music to sociology and the sciences. Her capstone project was an excellent analysis of suburban life in America.

Future Goals: Angelyn is currently employed in the private sector working for Clinique but plans to pursue graduate studies in the near future.