

ASRA H. KHAN

Ms. Khan has been an academic tutor in the School of TAS for two years as well as a student assistant at the Roukema Center for International Education, and a member of the International Students Organization, helping to organize such events as the International Food Festival and International Education Week. She will apply to graduate school at Columbia University and NYU to study neuroscience. She hopes to teach at the College level.