

Brandon Martin

Major: Law & Society

Brandon Martin graduated in 3½ years with a major in Law & Society , as well as History and African American Studies minors. He has held numerous leadership positions including Senate President of the Student Government Association, Treasurer of Phi Alpha Delta National Law Fraternity, Ramapo Admissions Advisory Board Member and Student Ambassador, and he will be the Class of 2011 Commencement Speaker. Brandon hopes to attend Teachers College at Columbia University and pursue a Master's Degree in Higher Education Administration and attend law school in the more distant future.