

The Outstanding Senior in Writing is Courtney Brach.

Courtney is a member of the Golden Key Honor Society, and has made the Dean's List every semester. She was nominated Student Employee of the Year for 2012 for her work as the Writing Coordinator in the Office of Marketing and Communications. She also writes copy for the monthly Campus Connections published on the Ramapo website and regularly interviews faculty, staff, and students for news. After graduation, she plans to work at a major publishing house in New York City while continuing to work on her novel.
