

Danielle Burgio

MAJOR: International Studies

An excellent student in every respect, her accomplishments include: Two study abroad semesters--in Ireland and New Zealand--, Spring break service learning in Guatemala, leading the College's Model UN Club to participate in an international conference in Ecuador, presidency of the Human Rights Society, serving on the Save Darfur Club, and internship at the Brooklyn Bridge to Cambodia organization for sustainable development

Danielle aspires towards a career in international development and human rights in the non-profit sector.