

Jennifer Leavy

Major: Psychology

Jennifer has volunteered as a recreational therapist and as a teacher's aide. She was a research assistant for Drs' Cataliotti and Crawley. One of her projects centered on alternative predictors of college academic success, and the second on forensic psychology. She recently presented her research at the Eastern Psychological Association conference in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Jennifer has been accepted to the Master's Degree program in Mental Health Counseling at Monmouth University and eventually would like to pursue her educational dream of earning a Ph.D. in either clinical or counseling psychology. She plans to work with children.
