

The Outstanding Senior in the Music Major is Mark Weyant.

Mark has applied his curiosity, critical reasoning, and strong research and writing skills to examine the history of music and the music industry. Mark routinely wrote essays that considered multiple perspectives on debatable issues before offering his own, well-deliberated position. His inquisitive disposition and solid communication skills will undoubtedly help him achieve his goals.