

COMPUTER SCIENCE - Every professor in Computer Science thinks Michael Walker is an excellent student and a credit to the major. Every professor also had little personal to say about Michael. Why? Because Michael is the ideal student; going about his responsibilities in a very quiet manner. Always thoughtful and solving puzzles without the need for self-praise, asking good questions and sharing insight, he is the sort of person who enhances our major by being part of it.