

NAME: Rebecca Feynberg

MAJOR: Music

BRIEF HIGHLIGHT: Ben Neill

Rebecca has been an exemplary student, demonstrating talent in a broad range of activities and excelling in virtually all of them. An accomplished singer, songwriter, pianist and performer, Rebecca has completed both the Music Industry and Music Production concentrations. In 2010 she received the Thomas H. Keane Scholarship from the Garden State Arts Center Foundation. She spent Fall 2010 studying in London at Middlesex University. Rebecca has been an active member of Gospel Chorus, Computer Music Ensemble, WRPR, MEISA (Music Entertainment and Industry Student Association), Ramashows, and the Women's Center, in addition to working for ITS, as a student aide in the Sharp Theater, and contributing a great deal to the maintenance and renovation of the Music Lab.

FUTURE GOALS: She plans to pursue a career in music publishing while continuing her creative work as a songwriter and performer.
