The CA Book Award recipient is Stefani De Carlo, an outstanding student who actively pursues a broad range of interests. As an officer for the Ramapo Chapter of MEISA (Music Entertainment and Industry Student Association), Stefani worked with great dedication to organize students and create events that helped launch MEISA as a vibrant student club. Stefani was also a highly valued member of the Ramapo Chorale for two years. Professors enthusiastically describe Stefani as a bright and hard-working student who enlivens class discussions and adds much to the music community at Ramapo.
