

2013 ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT CEREMONY

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE AND HUMAN SERVICES

The 2013 Herbert Wortreich Award winner is CAROL PARKER.

Also the SSHS outstanding student in Social Work, Carol is a member of Phi Alpha and the Golden Key International Honor Societies, as well as the Social Work and Ramapo Readers clubs. She participated at the Social Policy Symposium at Rutgers and was part of a group presentation at the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) advocacy for passage by the United States.

Today, we are also presenting Carol with this year's National Association of Social Work Award. The NASW scholarship award will help her achieve her goal to attend Graduate School to pursue a Master's degree in Social Work.

2013 ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT CEREMONY

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE AND HUMAN SERVICES

The outstanding student in SOCIAL WORK is CAROL PARKER.

Carol is a member of Phi Alpha and the Golden Key International Honor Societies, as well as the Social Work and Ramapo Readers clubs. She participated at the Social Policy Symposium at Rutgers and was part of a group presentation at the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) advocacy for passage by the United States.

Carol is also the 2013 National Association of Social Work Award winner. The NASW scholarship award will help her achieve her goal to attend Graduate School to pursue a Master's degree in Social Work.