

2013 ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT CEREMONY

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE AND HUMAN SERVICES

The first outstanding student in PSYCHOLOGY is SARA GORDON.

Last year's SSSH Book Prize winner, Sara served and is a member of many Honor Societies such as Omicron Delta Kappa National and Psi Chi International, and National Society of Collegiate Scholars only to name a few. She was founder and president of "You're Not Alone" the Ramapo College Anti-Bullying club, a Student Ambassador, and Peer Facilitator. Sara studied abroad at the University of Deusto in Bilboa, Spain, and interned at The Center for Alcohol and Drug Resources in Hackensack and at Rutgers University's Infancy Studies Laboratory.

Sara wants to get a Masters in Higher Education and Student Affairs in order to work at a college or university.
