

2013 ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT CEREMONY

SCHOOL OF THEORETICAL AND APPLIED SCIENCE

The first outstanding student in Biology is MICHELLE FAVRE.

Michelle is a member of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars, Alpha Lambda Delta, Golden Key, Chi Alpha Sigma, and Beta Beta Beta Honor Societies as well as the Pre-med, biology, and TAS Journal clubs. In the TAS Honors Research program, Michelle participated in the Ramapo TAS research symposiums in 2012 and 2013. She was an intern at Excel Orthopedic Rehabilitation in Oakland, NJ, and R & R Rehabilitation & Physical Therapy.

A member of the women's Track and Field team, Michelle is the first athlete in the history of Ramapo College to be named NJAC Overall Athlete of the Year. Her athletic awards and accomplishments are extensive and may be seen at http://www.ramapoathletics.com/news/2013/6/4/WTRK_0604133505.aspx?path=wtrack

Michelle plans to continue training in the Pole Vault in hopes to make it to the USA Championships. While training, she plans to work as a physical therapy aide and apply to physical therapy schools such as UMDNJ.
