

2013 ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT CEREMONY

SCHOOL OF THEORETICAL AND APPLIED SCIENCE

The outstanding student in Mathematics is GEENA COCKCROFT.

Geena is a member of Kappa Delta Pi and Pi Mu Epsilon Honor Societies, Publicist for the Math Club and a Student Ambassador. A Global Roadrunner, she studied abroad in Venice, Italy and London, England. Geena participated in the 2013 Joint Math Meetings Conference in San Diego, CA and also received ETS Recognition of Excellence Award on Praxis II: Mathematics Content Knowledge.

Geena has accepted a summer teaching position at Ramapo College for the Upward Bound program and is looking for a full-time teaching position. In the future, she would like to pursue a Master's degree in either Mathematics or Education.
