

CWAAC Minutes 5/5/2020

Present at the meeting: [needs updating]

- CWAAC discussed reminding groups of the pandemic-related assessment guidelines for spring 2020 including completing the Remote Assessment Survey
 - If you have not heard from programs, please follow up to determine the status of their assessment and whether they are postponing all or parts spring 2020-21 assessments
- CWAAC discussed assessment in 2020-2021 including
 - Reminding groups about assessment in case the College adopts remote / online learning for part or all of fall 2020 including the advantages of electronically submitted student products.
 - Reminding groups that they can adjust their assessment strategies if particular outcomes or student products are not well-suited for online / remote learning
- CWAAC agreed to revise the assessment template to streamline it as well as potentially moving it to an online form
 - CWAAC created a subcommittee to revise the template (Gilad Cohen, Christina Connor, Shaz Ishak, and Michael Unger).
 - The subcommittee will consult with the GECCo Chair
- CWAAC recommended to increase the similarity between its template and GECCos.
- CWAAC agreed to postpone the spring 2020 assessment brief until Middle States announces its final decision regarding the accreditation visit
 - The brief will include more data storytelling
 - CWAAC will work with the IEC on a comprehensive brief encompassing academic and administrative assessment activity.
- The Provost provided an update about fall 2021.
- Meeting adjourned
