I. Seal

The seal of the College, as previously adopted by the Board of Trustees (hereafter referred to as “the Board”), shall be kept in the custody of the Secretary or Recorder of the Board and shall be used as the Board may from time to time direct.

II. Powers, Duties, & Responsibilities

The governance, control, conduct, management and administration of Ramapo College of New Jersey is vested in the Board of Trustees. The Board shall exercise such powers and duties as are prescribed by law.

The purpose of the Board is to hold the College in trust for the public to serve and advance the overwhelming interest in public education. Representing as it does the public interest, rather than any particular constituency of the College, the Board is charged with formulating the specifics of Ramapo College’s mission, establishing the policies for fulfillment of that mission, and seeing to it that those policies are stewarded effectively.

It is the responsibility of each member of the Board to understand the principles of effective governance. Board members shall demonstrate this understanding by embracing the full scope of the Board’s duties, while respecting the different roles of the Board and the administration. Board members shall be ambassadors for the College and for public higher education. Board members shall lead by example, conducting themselves ethically, thinking independently and acting collectively. They shall promote justice, equity, sustainability, and inclusion. To serve the College strategically, Board members are expected to understand its mission, culture, constituents, and context; to prioritize long-term sustainability; and to ask insightful questions while listening with open minds.

The Board By-Laws were last amended by the Ramapo College Board of Trustees on June 27, 2022. Previously, they were amended on October 1, 2012, October 15, 2014, September 26, 2016, December 11, 2017, and April 30, 2022.
III. Office

The principal office of the College and the Board shall be c/o the Board of Trustees and Office of the President at 505 Ramapo Valley Road, Mahwah, New Jersey 07430, and the Board may have such other offices for the conduct of its business as it may from time to time designate.

IV. Committees of the Board

- Ad Hoc Committee(s)
- Audit Committee (AC)
- Executive/Judicial Committee (EJC)
- Resources Committee (Resources)
- Mission Fulfillment Committee (MFC)
- Nominations & Governance Committee (NGC)

V. Board Membership and Representatives

a. Voting Members

The Board shall consist of the following voting members:

- Up to eleven (11) Public Members who shall be citizens recommended by the Board and appointed by the Governor with the advice and consent of the Senate as prescribed by law. New Jersey residents shall be preferred. Recommendations of Public Members seek to be representative of the broad public interest and shall reflect consideration of individuals with appropriate skills, complementary expertise, demonstrated interest, and diverse backgrounds and experiences, which can contribute to the mission of the College and be representative of the diversity of the State; and

- A Student Trustee who shall be selected in the manner prescribed by law and according to procedures adopted by the Student Government Association which shall require broad campus publicity, open solicitation of nominations, and election by a majority of the voting members of the Student Government Association on or before May 1 of each year.

- The Student Trustee shall not have any right to vote on, or to participate in:

The Chair, when present, shall preside at all meetings of the Board and Executive/Judicial Committee. The Chair shall have general supervision of the affairs of the Board, subject to the approval of the Board. The Chair shall sign all reports, documents and/or instruments of any nature required by law to be filed or executed by or on behalf of the Board. The Chair may also serve as a member ex officio of all committees and shall annually appoint the members and designate the Chair of each committee.

ii. Role of the Vice Chair
The Vice Chair shall have and exercise all the powers and duties of the Chair, including without limitation signature authority, in the case of their absence or inability to act, and shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed from time to time by the Board.

iii. Role of the Treasurer
The Treasurer shall serve as a member of the Resources Committee and the Audit Committee. The Treasurer shall oversee through their Committee service, the Board’s review of and action related to the Board’s financial responsibilities.

VI. Board Meetings

a. Place

The Board shall meet at its principal office or at such other place as the Chair of the Board shall from time to time designate.

b. Time

The Board shall hold its annual meeting during the month of September, at which time the Board shall elect its Chair, Vice Chair, Treasurer and such other officers as it shall then determine.

The Board By-Laws were last amended by the Ramapo College Board of Trustees on June 27, 2022. Previously, they were amended on October 1, 2012, October 15, 2014, September 26, 2016, December 11, 2017, and April 30, 2022.
The Board shall hold other regular meetings at such other times as the Board shall designate, except that there shall be a minimum of five meetings a year (including the annual meeting and the annual budget hearing).

c. Other Meetings

Other meetings of the Board shall be convened when called by the Chair or upon the request of three voting members of the Board.

To the extent permitted by law, the Executive/Judicial Committee may take action on behalf of the Board on any emergent matter requiring an immediate decision between regularly scheduled meetings. At the next regular meeting of the Board, the Executive/Judicial Committee shall report its decisions to the full Board. Any three members of the Executive/Judicial Committee shall constitute a quorum thereof.

d. Notice

The notice requirements of the Open Public Meetings Act, NJ Rev Stat § 10:4-9 (2021) et seq., and any amendments thereto, shall be implemented. The Record, published in Hackensack, is the official newspaper to receive notices of Board of Trustees meetings.

Notices shall also be sent to The Ramapo News or any successor student newspaper.

The bulletin boards, located outside the Office of the Dean of Students and the Birch Mansion entryway, are the official on-campus locations for posting notices of Board of Trustees meetings and all notices of such meetings shall be posted thereon.

e. Closed Session

The Board may meet in closed session for such purposes and in accordance with such requirements as are stated in the Open Public Meetings Act, NJ Rev Stat § 10:4-9 (2021) et seq., and any amendments thereto.

Actions taken at a closed session of the Board shall be made known to the public at the time of public action or at such other time as the need for confidentiality no longer exists.

f. Agenda

The Board By-Laws were last amended by the Ramapo College Board of Trustees on June 27, 2022. Previously, they were amended on October 1, 2012, October 15, 2014, September 26, 2016, December 11, 2017, and April 30, 2022.
RAMAPO COLLEGE OF NEW JERSEY

BOARD OF TRUSTEES BYLAWS

At its annual meeting, the Board shall determine what major policy matters require determination in the coming academic year, and shall assign each such matter to the agenda of a designated meeting during said year.

The agenda for each Board meeting (including the annual meeting) shall be prepared by the President of the College (or, in the President’s absence, by the President’s designee) and by the Chair of the Board (or, in the Chair’s absence, by the Vice Chair) and shall be made available to each Board member and to the student, faculty and staff representatives to the Board at least seven (7) days before the meeting date.

The agenda shall include:
   i. items required by law;
   ii. the policy matter, if any, assigned thereto at the annual meeting;
   iii. any item submitted by a voting member of the Board to the President and the Chair at least 10 days before the meeting date;
   iv. such other matters as, in the opinion of the President or the Chair, are necessary or appropriate for Board consideration; and
   v. comments from the public.

g. Consent Agenda

The Board may, from time to time, deploy the use of a consent agenda as an efficient means by which routine, procedural items, not requiring discussion, are acted upon as part of the Board’s publicly noticed meeting. The deployment of a consent agenda shall be in accordance with the following guidelines:
   • the standing committees of the Board shall recommend which decision items are placed on the consent agenda;
   • the Board shall develop the consent agenda with sufficient time for review;
   • the Board may approve all items on the consent agenda at the same time; and
   • a trustee may request items be removed from the consent agenda and if such a request is made, the item must be removed from the consent agenda.

h. Quorum

A quorum shall consist of a simple majority of the Public Members of the Board. No voting may take place in the absence of a quorum.

The Board By-Laws were last amended by the Ramapo College Board of Trustees on June 27, 2022. Previously, they were amended on October 1, 2012, October 15, 2014, September 26, 2016, December 11, 2017, and April 30, 2022.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES BYLAWS

i. Voting

Only voting members of the Board may introduce motions, second motions or amendments, or count as part of a quorum except as noted above in Section V.a., V.b., and VI.c.

Voting may take place by conference call only at a properly announced meeting and when a teleconference system is used so that all provisions of the Open Public Meetings Law are met.

j. Voting Majority

A motion shall carry if it receives:
   i. the affirmative votes of a majority of the voting members of the Board who are present, and
   ii. at least three affirmative votes of voting members of the Board.

If a motion does not obtain the majority referred to in item (VI.j.i.), it shall fail.

If a motion obtains a majority but does not obtain at least three affirmative votes as required by item (VI.j.ii.), the motion shall be reconsidered at the next Board meeting unless the movant withdraws it but, if upon reconsideration, the motion does not meet the requirements of items (VI.j.i.) and (VI.j.ii.) above, the motion shall fail.

k. Procedure

Unless otherwise directed by the majority of the voting members of the Board who are present, all meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the latest edition of Roberts Rules of Order, except to the extent that same is inconsistent with the laws of New Jersey or these Bylaws; provided, however, that:
   i. only a voting member of the Board shall have standing to object to the procedure utilized at any meeting, and
   ii. any such objection shall be raised at the time the procedure is utilized or the objections shall be deemed to have been waived.

The Board By-Laws were last amended by the Ramapo College Board of Trustees on June 27, 2022. Previously, they were amended on October 1, 2012, October 15, 2014, September 26, 2016, December 11, 2017, and April 30, 2022.
VII. Amendments, Reviews, and Waiver

a. Amendments

By majority vote of the full voting membership of the Board (exclusive of vacant positions), these Bylaws may be amended, in whole or in part, and any such amendment may supplement, modify or repeal any provision herein.

No amendment may be voted upon unless its text was distributed to all Board members with the agenda for the Board meeting at which the vote is taken.

b. Review

The periodic review of the Board’s Bylaws are outlined in the Committee Charter. Any proposed amendments to the Bylaws shall be considered by the Board at a subsequent meeting and may be adopted pursuant to section VII.a.

c. Waiver

The provisions of sections VII.a. and VII.b. may be waived, in whole or in part, for defined time periods, by two-thirds vote of the full voting membership of the Board (exclusive of vacant positions).
