Academic Progress Flags

Academic Progress Flags are raised at the discretion of the faculty member and are up to interpretation. For instance, the Attendance Concern flag is dependent upon specific course policy. There is no set amount of classes that must be missed before raising this flag. Flags and their descriptions are explained in detail on the Academic Progress Items Description handout.

Email templates are auto-populated with the following information based on the course the item is raised for:

- Student First Name
- Course Name
- Raise Notes
- Raiser Name
- Raiser Email
- Raiser Phone

Raise notes will only show in an email if you see the Raise Notes icon in the email template and had included optional comments when raising the flag.
