When to Close a Flag

- The following actions can be considered when deciding to close a flag, for example:
  - An email has been sent to the student addressing the concern
  - Conversation has occurred between the student and advisor/faculty member
- This does not mean that the problem is necessarily completely solved but the student has been made aware that action should be taken in order to improve their academic standing.