

Proposals by ARC on graduate courses being taught in-load

Motion 1: Graduate courses may be taught as in-load (or as overload) with the permission of the Dean of the faculty member's school.

Motion 2: It is the expectation that full-time faculty at Ramapo College will teach a minimum of four undergraduate courses in-load per academic year. Exceptions to this policy must be approved by the Dean of the faculty member's school.