Dear colleagues,

I am writing to advise that effective immediately and through June 30, 2020, we are prohibiting all College-related travel without exception. This includes both domestic and international travel.

Please look to leveraging technology such as WebEx, Zoom, Google Hangout, Conference Calling, etc., with your co-workers and others off campus.

Our Covid-19 Website and HR Website remains the best source of information about the impact of the virus on our College Community and includes other information about work-related issues for faculty and staff. Human Resources Staff is available to answer additional workplace-related questions. Please email us at hr2020@ramapo.edu.

Keep in mind, Ramapo's priorities in making policy and operational decisions are:

- To protect the safety and health of our community; and
- To sustain academic programs and operational continuity.

Employees should ensure that their personal and emergency contact information are up-to-date in Web Self Service.

Please stay safe and thank you for everything you do for Ramapo.

Warm regards,
Virginia
