Ramapo College's 'Bringing Home Berrie' Announces Faculty Film Series

MAHWAH, N.J. -- The Angelica and Russ Berrie Center for Performing and Visual Arts at Ramapo College of New Jersey is pleased to announce a virtual Faculty Film Series on four Tuesdays in February. The series launches on Tuesday, February 2 at 7 p.m. with Ramapo College professor Kelly Dolak's documentary film Loyalty Code. The film streaming will be available through registration on the Berrie Center website and is free. After each broadcast, audiences will be able to join Lisa Campbell, Berrie Center Director, and the filmmaker for a live chat where they can ask questions.

Additional film screenings include the documentary film A Condor in the Reeds by Professor Marta Naomi Bautis on February 9; the docudrama Days of Atonement by Professor Shalom Gorewitz (with co-direction by Darryll Rudy) on February 16; and Blue Hole by Professor Rowlett Neel Scott on February 23.

While events are free, viewers are encouraged to consider making a gift to the Contemporary Arts Fund or the COVID-19 Student Emergency Fund through the Ramapo Foundation at www.ramapo.edu/give

For more information about the films and to register for the screenings, go to: www.ramapo.edu/berriecenter
