CABARET* WILL BE PERFORMED AT RAMAPO COLLEGE

(Mahwah) – The theater program of Ramapo College of New Jersey will present Cabaret April 21 – 22 and April 27 – 30 at 8 p.m. in the Sharp Theater. An additional performance is scheduled for April 24 at 3 p.m. Terra Vandergaw, an associate professor of theater at the College, will direct the production. The public is invited to attend.

The Broadway hit, as performed by Ramapo College students, depicts the seedy glamour of Berlin's Kit Kat Club and the tale of the eccentric Sally Bowles. The musical is set against the eerie backdrop of Germany in the late 1930s and the gathering storm of the Holocaust. Cabaret was written by John Kander and Fred Ebb, who are credited as having the longest running music and lyrics partnership in Broadway musical history. The musical is based on the novel Goodbye to Berlin written by Christopher Isherwood.

Tickets for the performance are $10. The Sharp Theater is located in the Angelica and Russ Berrie Center for Performing and Visual Arts on the Ramapo College campus. For more information call 201.684.7844.
