THREE RAMAPO COLLEGE DONORS TO BE HONORED AT BERRIE CENTER PERFORMANCE

(Mahwah) –Three major contributors to Ramapo College of New Jersey were honored Sunday, February 11 prior to the 7 p.m. performance of Capitol Steps in the Sharp Theater.

The recognition was presented by the CIT Performing Arts Series, sponsor of the evening's performance. Those honored were Joseph Leone of Franklin Lakes, executive vice president and chief financial officer of CIT Group Inc., who serves as co-chairman of the series; Larry Inserra of Mahwah, president of Inserra Supermarkets; and Mark O'Connell of Waldwick, director of Huron Consulting Group.

The presentation honored the recipients for their long-standing support of Ramapo College and the CIT Performing Arts Series. Presented by the Ramapo College Foundation, the CIT Performing Arts Dinner Series is a specially packaged series of performances and dinner receptions at the college's Berrie Center. Proceeds from the series provide funding for student scholarships, faculty research and critical college projects.
