

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Anna Farneski; afarnesk@ramapo.edu or Cynthia Burns: cyburns@ramapo.edu

March 12, 2009

RECENT MOVIE RELEASES WILL BE SCREENED AT RAMAPO COLLEGE FILM FESTIVAL

MAHWAH – The Office of Student Activities at Ramapo College of New Jersey will present a film festival in March. The festival is free and open to the public. The Oscar and Golden Globe-winning films will be screened at two venues on the College campus. Discussions, moderated by Ramapo College professors, will be held after each screening.

The festival screenings, times and locations are:

“Cadillac Records,” 3 p.m., SC-219

In this tale of sex, violence, race and rock and roll in 1950s Chicago, the film follows the exciting, but turbulent, lives of several of America’s musical legends including Muddy Waters, Leonard Chess, Little Walter, Howlin’ Wolf, Etta James and Chuck Berry.

“Frost/Nixon,” 3 p.m., H-Wing Auditorium

The film depicts the legendary battle between Richard Nixon, the disgraced president with a legacy to save, and David Frost, a jet-setting television personality with a name to make, in the story of the historic encounter that changed both their lives.

(more)

“Milk,” 6 p.m., SC-219

Upon moving to San Francisco from New York City in 1972, 40-year-old Harvey Milk gains focus in his life as a gay activist in the city’s Castro district. Gay rights activism turns to political activism as Milk decides he can be a more effective voice for the gay community as a politician, elected or not.

“Seven Pounds,” 6 p.m., H-Wing Auditorium

An IRS agent with a fateful secret embarks on an extraordinary journey of redemption by forever changing the lives of seven strangers.

“Valkyrie,” 9 p.m., SC-219

At the height of World War II, German generals hatch a daring plan to assassinate Adolf Hitler and effectively render the German war machine impotent. Valkyrie stars Tom Cruise as Colonel Claus von Stauffenberg, the real-life mastermind behind the plot known as Project Valkyrie, a plan to assassinate Hitler and overthrow his government from the inside.

(more)

“Doubt,” 9 p.m., H-Wing Auditorium

A charismatic priest, Father Flynn, is trying to upend the schools’ strict customs, which have long been fiercely guarded by Sister Aloysius Beauvier, the iron-gloved principal who believes in the power of fear and discipline. But when Sister James, a hopeful innocent, shares with Sister Aloysius her guilt-inducing suspicion that Father Flynn is paying too much personal attention to the school’s first African-American student, Sister Aloysius sets off on a personal crusade to unearth the truth and to expunge Flynn from the school.

The Film Festival will be held Saturday, March 28. The H-Wing Auditorium is located on the first floor of the H-Wing academic building. Room SC-219 is located on the second floor of the Robert A. Scott Student Center. Attendees may stop at the security gate at the main entrance to the campus on Ramapo Valley Road and be directed to the Visitor’s Parking lot. For more information, please call 201.684.7593.

###

For media inquiries, contact Anna Farneski, assistant vice president, Marketing and Communications, 201.684.6844.