

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Anna Farneski; afarnesk@ramapo.edu

September 16, 2010

Eleventh Annual Performing Arts Dinner Series
At Ramapo College of New Jersey

(MAHWAH, NJ) – The Ramapo College Foundation kicks off its Eleventh Annual Performing Arts Dinner Series Saturday, October 16 with Broadway’s Christine Ebersole at The Angelica and Russ Berrie Center for Performing and Visual Arts. Those who become benefactors and patrons of the program will be invited to a delicious gourmet dinner featuring a multi-choice buffet with fine wines and preferred seating for the performance.

The four performances in the series are Broadway’s Christine Ebersole featuring the Tony Award winner lauded for her work in “Grey Gardens” and “42nd Street” on October 16; An Eileen Ivers Christmas, offering a Celtic-style holiday concert on December 12; A.J. Swearingen and Jonathan Beedle presenting a flawless Simon and Garfunkel Retrospective on March 12; and the musical comedy of The Watercoolers on April 30.

Hosted by The Ramapo College Foundation, this specially packaged series is a way for philanthropic patrons to experience outstanding entertainment while supporting college scholarships, faculty and student research opportunities and campus capital projects.

Liberty Hyundai, Sharp and Shop Rite sponsor the series.

The two levels of support for the Performing Arts Dinner Series are: Benefactor level (two reserved tickets to each of the four dinners and performances at $1,200 with a $700 tax deduction) or Patron level (one ticket for any of the four performances at $110 with a $50 tax deduction). For additional information, please call Liz Kloak, 201.684.6834 or email lkloak@ramapo.edu.

Media inquiries may be directed to Anna Farneski, assistant vice president, Marketing and Communications, 201.684.6844.

###