HOLOCAUST RESTITUTION AND SWISS BANKS TO BE DISCUSSED AT RAMAPO COLLEGE

(MAHWAH, NJ) – Jaimie Taff, an attorney who works as Director in the Office of Special Master Michael Bradfield, Holocaust Victims Litigation, will speak at Ramapo College of New Jersey in March under the auspices of the Center for Holocaust and Genocide Studies.

Taff will discuss Holocaust restitution in the context of Swiss deposited assets litigation.

Taff received her undergraduate degree in History from the University of Maryland (College Park), and a juris doctorate from the Catholic University of America in Washington, DC. After working as a legislative analyst with the Congressional Research Service, Taff began working for Claims Resolution Process in 2002, first as an attorney at the Claims Resolution Tribunal in Zurich, Switzerland, and later as a Director in the Office of Special Master Michael Bradfield.

Taff will speak on Tuesday, March 22, at 7:00 p.m. in the Alumni Lounges (SC 137 and 138), Robert A. Scott Student Center. The presentation is free and open to the public. For more information or to reserve a seat, please call 201.684.7409.
