TV Comedian - Rondell Sheridan appearing at Ramapo College's Berrie Center Saturday, October 26

(MAHWAH, NJ) – On Saturday, October 26 at 8 p.m. The Berrie Center for Performing and Visual Arts at Ramapo College of New Jersey will present heralded actor, director and comedian Rondell Sheridan, in the Sharp Theater.

From the “Tonight Show with Johnny Carson” to “Jay Leno,” to “Late Night with Conan O’Brien,” to the “Late, Late, Late Show with Craig Ferguson,” to several Showtime Comedy Central specials, Rondell has done it all.

As a comedian, Sheridan’s quick witted comedic timing is second to none. While transforming ordinary situations like going to a nude beach, into a hilarious tale, his story telling is a continual wave of laughing out loud!

However, not just a stand-up, but also an actor who’s probably best known as Chef Victor from Disney’s “That’s So Raven” Rondell has appeared in more than 200 TV sitcoms, from shows like NBC’s “Minor Adjustments” (a show he co-created), to “Cousin Skeeter,” and “Cory in the House!” He has co-hosted/hosted talk shows like “Men are From Mars, Women are From Venus” and “That’s Funny and Show Me the Funny.”

Marking his 30th year in comedy, he’s released a new CD a “Banana and a Gun.”

Credits include:

“The Late Late Late Show w/ Craig Ferguson”

“The Tonight Show” with Johnny Carson”

“The Tonight Show with Jay Leno”

“Late Night with Conan O’Brien”

“Politically Incorrect with Bill Maher”

“Stand-up Spotlight with Rosie O’Donald”

Ranked by U.S. News & World Report as sixth in the Best Regional Universities North category, Ramapo College of New Jersey is sometimes mistaken for a private college. This is, in part, due to its unique interdisciplinary academic structure, its size of approximately 6,008 students and its pastoral setting in the foothills of the Ramapo Mountains on the New Jersey/New York border.

Established in 1969, Ramapo College offers bachelor's degrees in the arts, business, humanities, social sciences and the sciences, as well as in professional studies, which include nursing and social work. In addition, Ramapo College offers courses leading to teacher certification at the elementary and secondary levels. The College also offers six graduate programs as well as articulated programs with the University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey, New York Chiropractic College, New York University College of Dentistry, SUNY State College of Optometry and New York College of Podiatric Medicine.
