Kirsten DaSilva named Vice President of Administration and Finance for Ramapo College

MAHWAH, N.J. -- Kirsten DaSilva has assumed the role of Vice President for Administration and Finance for Ramapo College of New Jersey, effective January 1.

As a key member of the senior leadership team, her responsibilities will include oversight of the operating and capital budgets, financial planning, accounting and business operations, payroll, procurement and contracting, facilities operations and management, capital planning and construction, human resources, and mail and central receiving operations.

Ms. DaSilva joined Ramapo in 2012 as Comptroller in Institutional Advancement, and served as the Chief Financial Officer for the Ramapo College Foundation. During her tenure at Ramapo, she has served as a member of the Position Review Committee, Administrative Program Review Committee, and President's Committee on Campus Sustainability. Prior to joining Ramapo, Ms. DaSilva served as Controller with Community Education Centers and spent much of her career at PricewaterhouseCoopers.

She is a certified public accountant in New Jersey, member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and is a graduate of Montclair State University. Ms. DaSilva lives in Oakland, N.J., with her husband Dan and their two sons.

Ranked by U.S. News & World Report as fifth in the Best Regional Public Universities North category, Ramapo College of New Jersey is sometimes mistaken for a private college. This is, in part, due to its unique interdisciplinary academic structure, its size of approximately 6,000 students and its pastoral setting in the foothills of the Ramapo Mountains on the New Jersey/New York border.

Established in 1969, Ramapo College offers bachelor's degrees in the arts, business, humanities, social sciences and the sciences, as well as in professional studies, which include nursing and social work. In addition, Ramapo College offers courses leading to teacher certification at the elementary and secondary levels. The College also offers eight graduate programs as well as articulated programs with Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey,

New York Chiropractic College, New York University College of Dentistry, SUNY State College of Optometry and New York College of Podiatric Medicine.
