“Beginnings” Take the Stage for TD Bank Summer Concert Series at Ramapo College

MAHWAH, N.J. – The 2016 TD Bank Summer Concert Series continues when “Beginnings” takes the stage on Thursday, July 28.

The concert, which will be held at the College Bandshell, begins at 8 p.m. Admission is free and parking is $5 per vehicle. In case of rain, concerts are held in the air-conditioned Bradley Center Arena. Callahan’s food truck will be on the premises and other snacks will be available for purchase.

“Beginnings” is the ultimate tribute to the group Chicago. The horn section electrifies audiences and the vocals make you feel like you are at an authentic Chicago concert as they play all the hits of this Rock and Roll Hall of Fame group.

Ramapo College gratefully acknowledges the support of TD Bank and the following additional sponsors: Bergen Barracudas Swim Team, Liberty Mutual Insurance, Rockland Electric Company and the Friends of Ramapo.

Ranked by U.S. News & World Report as fifth in the Best Regional Public Universities North category, Ramapo College of New Jersey is sometimes viewed as a private college. This is, in part, due to its unique interdisciplinary academic structure, its size of approximately 6,000 students and its pastoral setting in the foothills of the Ramapo Mountains on the New Jersey/New York border.

Established in 1969, Ramapo College offers bachelor's degrees in the arts, business, humanities, social sciences and the sciences, as well as in professional studies, which include nursing and social work. In addition, Ramapo College offers courses leading to teacher certification at the elementary and secondary levels. The College also offers eight graduate programs as well as articulated programs with Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, New York Chiropractic College, New York University College of Dentistry, SUNY State College of Optometry and New York College of Podiatric Medicine.
