Friends of Ramapo College to Present ‘Raising Financially Savvy Kids’ Workshop

MAHWAH, N.J. – The Friends of Ramapo College is sponsoring a workshop titled “Raising Financially Savvy Kids” on Thursday, October 13 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Bradley Center Lobby on campus.

Presenters are Sarah Beane Ricca, Certified Financial Planner, and Trevor Albertine, Vice President of TD Bank. Topics of discussion will include budgeting, saving and spending. Children, parents, grandparents and caregivers are invited to attend. Light refreshments will be available.

The event is free; however, registration is required by Wednesday, October 5. For information or to register for the event, please contact Jo Anne Zellers, Director of Constituent Relations at Ramapo College, at jzellers@ramapo.edu or 201-684-7179.

###

Ranked by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top in the Best Regional Public Universities North category, Ramapo College of New Jersey is sometimes viewed as a private college. This is, in part, due to its unique interdisciplinary academic structure, its size of approximately 6,000 students and its pastoral setting in the foothills of the Ramapo Mountains on the New Jersey/New York border.

Established in 1969, Ramapo College offers bachelor's degrees in the arts, business, humanities, social sciences and the sciences, as well as in professional studies, which include nursing and social work. In addition, Ramapo College offers courses leading to teacher certification at the elementary and secondary levels. The College also offers eight graduate programs as well as articulated programs with Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, New York Chiropractic College, New York University College of Dentistry, SUNY State College of Optometry and New York College of Podiatric Medicine.
