‘Iphigenia and Other Daughters’ to be Presented at Ramapo College

MAHWAH, N.J. – The School of Contemporary Arts at Ramapo College presents “Iphigenia and Other Daughters” by Ellen McLaughlin in the Berrie Center for Performing and Visual Arts Adler Theater on the College campus. The production is directed by Peter A. Campbell, Professor of Theater, with Ramapo College students and a professional production staff.

This modern re-telling of the ancient Greek stories of the daughters of Agamemnon and Clytemnestra explores the various sacrifices expected of women, from the everyday to the most violent.

Performances dates and times: October 14, 15, 16, 19, 20, 21 22 at 8 p.m. and October 22 at 2 p.m.

Tickets are $5 for Ramapo students; $15 for general admission.

For more information or to order tickets, visit www.ramapo.edu/berriecenter/performance-schedule/ or call the box office at 201-684-7844.

Ranked by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top in the Best Regional Public Universities North category, Ramapo College of New Jersey is sometimes viewed as a private college. This is, in part, due to its unique interdisciplinary academic structure, its size of approximately 6,000 students and its pastoral setting in the foothills of the Ramapo Mountains on the New Jersey/New York border.

Established in 1969, Ramapo College offers bachelor's degrees in the arts, business, humanities, social sciences and the sciences, as well as in professional studies, which include nursing and social work. In addition, Ramapo College offers courses leading to teacher certification at the elementary and secondary levels. The College also offers eight graduate programs as well as articulated programs with Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, New York Chiropractic College, New York University College of Dentistry, SUNY State College of Optometry and New York College of Podiatric Medicine.
