‘Nine Things Millennials Should Know about Socialism’ to be Explored during Presentation at Ramapo College

MAHWAH, N.J. – The Sabrin Center for Free Enterprise at Ramapo College of New Jersey is presenting “Nine Things Millennials Should Know about Socialism” on Monday, November 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the Trustees Pavilion. Keynote speaker is noted professor and author Dr. Thomas DiLorenzo, who will explore the question: Should the future of America be Democratic Socialism?

The event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served at 7 p.m.

Dr. DiLorenzo is professor of economics at Loyola University Maryland and a senior fellow of the Ludwig von Mises Institute in Auburn, Alabama. He holds a Ph.D. in economics from Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University and a B.A. in economics from Westminster College in New Willington, Pennsylvania. He is the author of dozens of academic journal articles and author/co-author of 15 books, including The Problem with Socialism; Organized Crime: The Unvarnished Truth About Government; and The Real Lincoln.

Funding for this project was provided by the John Templeton Foundation through a grant from the Institute for Human Services.

For disability-related accommodations, and to RSVP, please email msabrin@ramapo.edu by Thursday, November 10.

Ranked by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top in the Best Regional Public Universities North category, Ramapo College of New Jersey is sometimes viewed as a private college. This is, in part, due to its unique interdisciplinary academic structure, its size of approximately 6,000 students and its pastoral setting in the foothills of the Ramapo Mountains on the New Jersey/New York border.

Established in 1969, Ramapo College offers bachelor's degrees in the arts, business, humanities, social sciences and the sciences, as well as in professional studies, which include nursing and social work. In addition, Ramapo

College offers courses leading to teacher certification at the elementary and secondary levels. The College also offers eight graduate programs as well as articulated programs with Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, New York Chiropractic College, New York University College of Dentistry, SUNY State College of Optometry and New York College of Podiatric Medicine.
