MAHWAH, N.J. – The Ramapo College Foundation will hold its 30th Annual Golf Outing at the North Jersey Country Club in Wayne, N.J., on Monday, July 17. Proceeds from the outing provide scholarship support for qualified students, fund collaborative research initiatives between students and faculty and support special programs and projects on campus. Additional sponsors for the outing include DialAmerica, Inserra ShopRite Supermarkets, UPS, Prestige BMW & Prestige MINI, BMW of North America, Stryker, Lakeland Bank, Harwood Lloyd LLC, and Johnston Communications.

The Havemeyer Presidential Leadership Award, which is given to an individual who has offered his or her expertise and whose contributions have touched the lives of students, faculty and staff at Ramapo College, will be presented to Terrie O'Connor, founder and broker/owner of Terrie O'Connor Realtors in Ramsey, N.J. In 2012, Ramapo College's Center for Innovative and Professional Learning entered into an affiliation with Terrie O'Connor Realtors Real Estate School, Ramsey, to prepare students and adult learners for successful careers as licensed real estate salespersons with the pre-licensing requirements necessary to pursue a career in the field.

Since beginning her career in 1981, she has been a consistent achiever in the New Jersey Association of Realtors' Million Dollar Sales Club. O'Connor is a member of Leading Real Estate Companies of the World, the Employer Relocation Council, Who's Who in Luxury Real Estate, New Jersey MLS, and is licensed in both New Jersey and New York. She is a director on the boards of Commerce and Industry of New Jersey and the Mahwah Regional Chamber of Commerce, and she served on the Bergen County Executive Task Force of Affordable Housing. O'Connor is a member of the Valley Hospital Auxiliary and the Women's Club of Upper Saddle River.

Cost for the outing is $575 per golfer/$2,300 per foursome. Sponsorships are available. Tickets to the Awards Dinner are $125. To register and for more information, please visit www.ramapo.edu/golf-outing or contact Liz Kloak at lkloak@ramapo.edu or call 201-684-6834.

Ranked by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top in the Best Regional Public Universities North category, Ramapo College of New Jersey is sometimes viewed as a private college. This is, in part, due to its unique interdisciplinary academic structure, its size of approximately 6,000 students and its pastoral setting in the foothills of the Ramapo Mountains on the New Jersey/New York border.

Established in 1969, Ramapo College offers bachelor's degrees in the arts, business, humanities, social sciences and the sciences, as well as in professional studies, which include nursing and social work. In addition, Ramapo College offers courses leading to teacher certification at the elementary and secondary levels. The College also offers eight graduate programs as well as articulated programs with Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, New York Chiropractic College, New York University College of Dentistry, SUNY State College of Optometry and New York College of Podiatric Medicine.
