Berrie Center for Performing Arts presents Emilio Teubal Trio

MAHWAH, N.J. -- Latin Grammy winner Emilio Teubal and his vibrant jazz ensemble will perform at the Berrie Center for the Arts at Ramapo College on Saturday, October 15 at 8 p.m. to conclude the celebration of Hispanic/Latinx Heritage Month. A versatile pianist who can navigate through different styles of written and improvised music, Teubal has recorded more than twenty albums and regularly performs in top venues throughout the country.

Pianist and composer Emilio Teubal joins drummer and percussionist Rodrigo Recabarren and bassist Pablo Lanouguere to form the N.Y.-based Emilio Teubal New Post-Trio, the newest project from Teubal. Their music combines influences from Latin-American folk music, jazz, progressive rock, free improvisation, classical music, with hints of Middle Eastern music. Teubal is an Argentine musician whose accomplishments include the 2018 Latin Grammy winning album "Vigor Tanguero."
