

Comprehensive Academic Plan

Fall 2024 Update

Use the QR code to revisit the CAP

Core Value 1: Center the shared work of faculty and students

Accomplishments

- Conveners meeting in Spring re Benchmarking,
- Fieldwork and Capstone Courses are tagged in Banner
- Study Abroad moved under Vice Provost, new search for Director near completion
- New Program: Cybersecurity (BS), Filmmaking (BA), Theater and Film (BA), Data Science (Cert), Business (Cert) and Ethics (Cert)
- Working group of Convenors of Contract Majors to discuss self-designed major

Upcoming

- Next steps for Contract Majors/Design your own major (to be presented today)
- Charge for Gen Ed review
- Review of Civic Engagement report
- Review of FYS is underway

Core Value 2: Diversity and Inclusion Integration

Accomplishments

- ER moved under Provost's Office

Upcoming

- Updating process for advertising positions to attract diverse and qualified applicants
- Daily class schedule task force (Spring 25)
- Hispanic Serving Institution (HSI) task force

Core Value 3: Academic structures and programs that evolve in response to our community and context

Accomplishments

- Regular communication and support for Deans and Program Directors to ensure budget alignment with CAP priorities
- CourseDog and DegreeWorks - tools for improved interface with catalog, curriculum and student graduation plans
- Academic Structures and Conveners task force reports delivered to the Provost

Upcoming

- Use of Canvas Credentials for certification programs

Core Value 4: Be a culture of continuous learning

Accomplishments

- Increased budget for faculty travel
- Alignment of foundation grants with academic goals
- Update of Provost's Office Website
- Establishment of a Research and Engagement Academy
- Support for faculty writing circles and faculty professional development about AI
- Faculty Resource Center events

Upcoming

- Development of Canvas Credentials for faculty and adjunct professional development
 - Faculty handbook revisions
- 