ASB Requirements: All business majors take a comprehensive set of ASB courses that cover the fundamentals of accounting, business law, business ethics, information technology management, economics, statistics, finance, international business, organizational behavior, operations management, marketing, and strategic management. In addition to building competency in these functional areas, the ASB requirements provide students with reasoning skills, communication skills, a global perspective, and an ethical and socially-responsible approach to business. These learning outcomes build upon and complement the broader liberal arts foundation that the college-wide general education courses provide.

These are the following ASB requirements:

- ACCT221 - PRINCIPLES OF FINANCIAL ACCOUNTING
- ACCT222 - PRINCIPLES OF MANAGERIAL ACCOUNTING*
- BADM223 - BUSINESS LAW I*
