

Office of Student Conduct

Charges Flowchart

* Examples may include; complaint does not reveal a Code of Conduct violation, investigation fails to reveal violator/credible evidence to charge, student granted amnesty through the Good Samaritan Policy, situation justifies resolution through other means (No Contact Order, mediation, verbal/written counsel).

 Failure to comply with sanctions may result in a registration hold until student is in compliance and may result in a new hearing for violating terms of disciplinary sanctions.

 Only determinations that result in suspension or expulsion from the College or a suspension of residence privileges may be appealed. The decision of the Dean of Students is final.
