"My professors were instrumental to my success at Ramapo College. I completed a double major... as well as study abroad in New Zealand, in my time there. Being at Ramapo taught me how to overcome adversity, and gave me the opportunity to reach down deep within myself to rise to many occasions. I have developed not only wisdom, but lasting friendships and community at Ramapo College." Joseph is currently a Residential Counselor at Summer House, a 24/7 mental illness group home for adults in Paramus, N.J.

UNDERGRAD Social Work
MINOR Contemplative Studies
MASTERS Social Work

"I thoroughly enjoyed my experience at Ramapo, with its breathtaking campus and the passionate professors who took the time to get to know me and introduce new concepts to me. The professors helped me develop essential skills and the importance of self-care. The social work internship within this minor gave me the confidence to incorporate facilitation of mindfulness meditations with clients in both English and Spanish.

KEVIN (HAN SEUL) YOO '16

CONCENTRATION Marketing
MINOR International Business

"When it comes to exploration, there are no boundaries at Ramapo. I was able to diversify my knowledge and skills at Ramapo College thanks to the people with whom I've worked, interacted and bonded. After graduation, I presented myself as more than just a marketing major; I learned how to be a mentor as a peer facilitator and how to cater to the needs of people of different backgrounds as a peer advisor.
